RBA – Cookie Notice for [www.responsiblelabor.org]

Last updated [June 2, 2021]

This Cookie Notice ("Notice") explains how the Responsible Business Alliance ("RBA", "we", "us, "our") uses cookies and other tracking technologies through our website [https://www.responsiblelabor.org/]. This Notice is to be read alongside the RBA's Privacy Notice [available here] which explains how the RBA uses personal information. If you do not accept our use of cookies, please disable them following our guidance below.

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small files that are placed on your computer or mobile device by a website when you visit it. They contain details of your browsing history on that website and distinguish you from other users. Cookies send data back to the originating website on each subsequent visit or allow another website to recognise the cookie. Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognise a user's device and, for instance, remember your preferences and generally improve your online user experience. Like most websites, our website uses cookies.

Although this Notice refers to the general term "cookie", it also applies to similar tracking technologies that we use such as 'web beacons', 'clear GIFs' and 'pixels'.

You can find out more about cookies at www.allaboutcookies.org.

2. Why do we use cookies?

1. To let you do things on our website – for example, to enable you to log in to secure areas of the website, fill in webforms or view certain content.

2. To collect statistics – this enables us to improve the website through usage figures and patterns. For example, it is really useful to see which pages of the website are the most popular and how users are interacting with them.

3. To improve your experience of our website – for example, to prevent you having to re-enter your login details when you have already done so, or by ensuring that users can find what they are looking for easily.

4. To ensure that our website is secure – for example, to make sure that personal information that you give to us does not fall into the wrong hands.

The table below provides more information about the cookies we use and why.
